10. Large scale employment oppor, tunities are provided by the Railways. Nationalised Banks and Publi$_c$ Sector Enterprisas. In thes$_e$ cases also the concerned departments should ensure that special consideration is given to recruitment from minority communities.

11. In many areas recruitment is done through competitive examinations. Often minority groups have been handicapped in taking advantage of the educational system to compete on equal terms in such examinations. T$_0$ help them to overcom$_e$ these handicaps, steps should be taken to encourage the starting of coaching classes in minority educational institutions to train persons to compete successfully in these examinations.

12. The acquisition of technical skills by those minorities who are to day lagging behind would also help in national development. Arrangements should be made to set up ITIs and polytechnics by Government or pri vate agencies in predominently mi nority areas to encourage admission in such institutions of adequate num ber of persons belonging to these communities.

IM. Other Measures

13. In various development pro grammes, including the 20-Point Pro gramme, care should be taken to see that minorities secure in a fair and adequate measures the benefits flowing therefrom. In th$_e$ various committees which ar$_e$ set up to oversee the implementation of such programmes, members of those communities should be actively involved.

14. Apart from the general issues to which I have referred ther$_e$ ar$_e$ vari ous local problems which develop into needless irritants to minorities. For instance encroachment of Wakf pro perties and on graveyards hav$_e$ led to protests and grievances in some plac es. Suitable steps should b$_e$ taken to deal with such problems on an ex peditious and satisfactory basis.

15. Problems relating to minorities need to b$_e$ attended to on a continuing basis so that apprehensions are allayed and genuin$_e$ grievances redressed. To facilitate this, a special cell will be created in the Ministry of Home Aflairs to deal with matters relating to minorities.
